FIXED DEPARTURES

The simplest possible Kashmir introduction.

Srinagar (base) › Gulmarg round trip › Sonamarg round trip › checkout & departure. One hotel, two day trips, no houseboat, no changing rooms — this is the lowest-effort way to see all three Kashmir highlights in a single short visit.

AT A GLANCE

DAY

1

ARRIVE SRINAGAR

Pickup › check-in › Mughal Gardens › local market › evening at the Bund. This hotel is your base for all 4 days.

2

GULMARG ROUND TRIP

Drive to Gulmarg › Gondola Phase 1 (Kongdoori) › Phase 2 (Apharwat, 3,979m) › return to the same Srinagar hotel.

3

SONAMARG ROUND TRIP

Drive to Sonamarg › Thajiwas Glacier › optional Zero Point & Zojila Pass detour › return to Srinagar.

4

CHECKOUT & DEPARTURE

Morning at leisure › last-minute shopping › drop to Srinagar Airport (SXR) or Railway Station.

WHY A SINGLE-BASE FORMAT

- No packing or unpacking after Day 1 — your room stays the same for all 4 days.
- You can leave luggage and non-essentials at the hotel during both day trips.
- Best suited for shorter visits, families with young children, or travellers who prefer not to switch hotels frequently.
- Want a houseboat night too? It can be added as an extra night at the end — just ask when booking.

1

Arrive Srinagar

▲ 1,585 m (Srinagar)

ROUTE

Pickup from Srinagar Airport (SXR) or Railway Station › check-in hotel › Mughal Gardens › local market

Distance: ~25 km local | Drive: Half day

SIGHTSEEING & STOPS

- Pickup and transfer to your hotel — The Sukoon Co. driver meets you at arrivals/station with a name board
- Check in — this is your base for the entire trip, no need to repack for the next 3 nights
- Nishat Bagh — “Garden of Bliss”, Mughal terraced garden with Dal Lake and Zabarwan range backdrop
- Shalimar Bagh — built by Jahangir for Empress Noor Jahan, the most romantic of the Mughal gardens
- Chashme Shahi — smallest but finest of the three, natural spring water source
- Lal Chowk and Polo View Market — local shopping, Kashmiri handicrafts, dry fruits, saffron
- Evening: stroll along the Bund — riverside promenade along the Jhelum

PLANNING NOTE

Since this is a single-base trip, choose your Srinagar hotel with extra care — you will return to it for 3 nights. A lake-facing room or one with a garden view makes the whole trip feel more special. Arrival timing dictates the pace of Day 1; if you land in the afternoon, we prioritise the gardens over the market.

2

Gulmarg Round Trip

▲ 3,979 m (Gondola Phase 2)

ROUTE

Srinagar › Tangmarg › Gulmarg › Gondola Phase 1 (Kongdoori, 3,080m) › Gondola Phase 2 (Apharwat, 3,979m) › return Srinagar (same hotel)

Distance: ~110 km round trip | Drive: Full day, 8–9 hrs incl. gondola

SIGHTSEEING & STOPS

- Drive to Gulmarg (~50km, 1.5–2 hrs) through pine forests and the Tangmarg approach
- Gulmarg meadow — “Meadow of Flowers”, one of Asia’s most beautiful hill stations
- Gondola Phase 1 — Gulmarg to Kongdoori (3,080m), spectacular views of the Pir Panjal range
- Gondola Phase 2 — Kongdoori to Apharwat Peak (3,979m), snow year-round at the top station
- Apharwat Peak viewpoint — on clear days, views extend toward Nanga Parbat
- St. Mary’s Church, Gulmarg — colonial-era Anglican church
- Return drive to the same Srinagar hotel by evening — no checking in again, your room is ready

WORTH THE EXTRA EFFORT

One of the highest cable cars in the world, with breathtaking views across the Pir Panjal range — genuinely worth the early start.

PLANNING NOTE

Book Gondola tickets first thing on arrival — queues build quickly by mid-morning. Phase 2 can close on short notice due to weather — The Sukoon Co. checks the status the evening before. The advantage of this single-base format: you can leave anything you don’t need for the day trip back at the hotel.

3

Sonamarg Round Trip

▲ 2,800 m / 3,529 m (optional)

ROUTE

Srinagar › Kangan › Sonamarg › Thajiwas Glacier (pony/walk) › optional local cab to Zero Point & Zojila Pass › return Srinagar (same hotel)

Distance: ~170 km round trip | Drive: Full day, 7–8 hrs

SIGHTSEEING & STOPS

- Drive to Sonamarg along the Sindh River — lush valley, pine forests, the road to Ladakh begins here
- Sonamarg — “Meadow of Gold”, noticeably colder than Srinagar
- Thajiwas Glacier — short pony ride or walk (3km) from the main road, glacier visible even in summer
- Sindh River views — clear glacial water, popular for short riverside walks
- OPTIONAL (extra local cab required): Zero Point — snow-covered viewpoint further up toward Zojila
- OPTIONAL: Zojila Pass viewpoint (3,529m) — gateway pass toward Drass and Ladakh
- Return drive to the same Srinagar hotel by evening

WORTH THE EXTRA EFFORT

The Zero Point and Zojila Pass detour is genuinely worth the extra cost if road conditions allow — a real taste of high-altitude Ladakh-bound terrain in a single day, with the comfort of returning to your own Srinagar bed that night.

PLANNING NOTE

This is a longer round trip than the Gulmarg day (Sonamarg is further from Srinagar), so start by 7–7:30am. Sonamarg is the coldest stop on this circuit — pack a proper jacket even for a summer visit. By evening you are back in the familiar comfort of your Srinagar room — no settling into a new place at the end of a long day.

4

Checkout & Departure

▲ 1,585 m (Srinagar) › Departure

ROUTE

Srinagar hotel checkout › optional last-minute shopping › Srinagar Airport (SXR) or Railway Station drop

Distance: ~25 km local | Drive: Half day

SIGHTSEEING & STOPS

- Late checkout if your flight/train timing allows (ask the hotel in advance)
- Optional: Hazratbal Shrine or Shankaracharya Temple if not covered on Day 1
- Optional: final stop at a saffron, dry fruit, or pashmina shop
- Buffer time built in for traffic and security checks at the airport
- Drop-off at Srinagar Airport (SXR) or Railway Station as per your booking

PLANNING NOTE

Because you have stayed in one hotel throughout, checkout on Day 4 is simple — no need to gather belongings from multiple rooms or settle bills at different properties. Plan for at least 3 hours of buffer between checkout and your departure time.

Essential Travel Information

This 4-day format uses a single Srinagar hotel as your base for the entire trip, with Gulmarg and Sonamarg covered as long day trips. No houseboat, no changing accommodation — the simplest and lowest-effort way to see all three Kashmir highlights.

DOCUMENTATION

- No special permits required for Indian nationals to visit Srinagar, Gulmarg, or Sonamarg
- Carry original photo ID at all times — checkpoints are routine on Kashmir highways
- Foreign nationals: no restricted area permit needed for this circuit, but always carry passport copies

GONDOLA & LOCAL COSTS (NOT INCLUDED IN BASE PRICE)

- Gulmarg Gondola Phase 1 (Gulmarg to Kongdoori): approx Rs. 740 per person return
- Gulmarg Gondola Phase 2 (Kongdoori to Apharwat, 3,979m): approx Rs. 1,540 per person return
- Combined Phase 1 + 2 ticket: approx Rs. 2,200 per person — book early, queues build by mid-morning
- Sonamarg local cab for Zero Point/Zojila viewpoint: approx Rs. 2,500–3,500 per vehicle (shared if solo)
- Thajiwas Glacier pony ride (optional): approx Rs. 800–1,200 per person round trip

ALTITUDE & WEATHER NOTES

- Srinagar (1,585m): comfortable year-round, can be humid in summer
- Gulmarg (up to 3,979m at Phase 2 top station): significantly colder, snow possible even in June
- Sonamarg (2,800m): noticeably colder than Srinagar — carry a proper jacket even in summer
- Carry warm layers for Gulmarg Phase 2 and Sonamarg regardless of season — wind chill is significant

BEST TIME TO VISIT

- April–June: Spring bloom, gardens at their best, Gulmarg still has snow for photos
- July–September: Greenest landscapes, all roads open, Sonamarg meadows lush
- September–early November: Autumn colours (chinar trees turning), fewer crowds
- December–February: Snow season, Gulmarg becomes a ski destination

CONNECTIVITY

- BSNL, Jio, and Airtel all work well in Srinagar and Gulmarg
- Sonamarg has reasonable coverage; signal weakens toward Zero Point and Zojila
- WhatsApp and calls work in all main towns on this circuit
